Questions from the Video. Meet a medieval noblewoman

1. What is the noblewoman’s name and what castle does she live in?
   ________________________________________________________________

2. How did the clothing the two girls were wearing change?
   ________________________________________________________________

3. Where was the Duchess of Norfolk’s bedroom?
   ________________________________________________________________

4. What was one of the examples given for great courtesy?
   ________________________________________________________________

5. Why was a napkin placed over the shoulder or on the sleeve?
   ________________________________________________________________

6. What must you never do at the table?
   ________________________________________________________________

7. How did you eat the food at a banquet?
   ________________________________________________________________

8. How are you supposed to drink at the table?
   ________________________________________________________________

9. Name some of the foods that were ordered throughout the year?
   ________________________________________________________________

10. Would you like to be a noblewoman in medieval times/ if so why?
    ________________________________________________________________