An Acrostic poem using the topic words from Task 7.

C astles have stinky moats with floating rubbish and poo,
A round the tower archers wait to strike,
S lowly the drawbridge lowers to the ground,
T iny narrow windows fill with flaming arrows,
L ively strong horses carrying heavy knights and lances,
E merging from the portcullis entrance.