The title of the text is ‘Holiday Snaps’. Explain what is meant by the word ‘snaps’.

__________________________________________________________________________

How many people went on holiday and who were they?

__________________________________________________________________________

What was the name of the island that Connor saw when he looked out of the window of the plane?

__________________________________________________________________________

What do you think the weather was like on Connor’s holiday? Explain how you know.

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

On a separate piece of paper write about where you would like to go on holiday.